

Engagement

BRENDA EUBANKS

Eubanks - Andrews

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Eubanks, 1003 Acacia Ave., announce the engagement of their daughter, Brenda, to Leslie Thomas Andrews, son of General and Mrs. Thomas L. Andrews of Petersburg, Va.

Miss Eubanks, a 1967 graduate of Torrance High School, is employed by the United States government in Washington, D.C.

Her fiancé was graduated from Edison High School and attended St. Mary's University in San Antonio, Tex. Presently, he is serving with the United States Army, stationed at Walter Reed Army Medical Center as a neuro-psychiatry specialist.

The wedding will take place in late summer in Torrance.

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

SUNDAY, APRIL 28, 1968

B-1

Capture Top Honors

With their entries, judged the best, in the Los Colinas Flower Show are, from left, Mmes. Jerry G. Toombs, who was presented with the "Best of the Show" award; Mrs. Marion Hamer, who won the "Award of Merit"; Frank Carroll, Sweepstakes winner; Ernest Jacobs, one of the hostesses for the annual event; and Richard Diedrich, general chairman for the show. (Press-Herald Photo)

Rembrandt Crew Presents

Parasol Show

The Rembrandt Crew, sponsored by the Palos Verdes Community Arts Association, is busy with plans for its annual Parasol Show to be held May 4 and 5 from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. both days, at the Palos Verdes Estates Plaza.

This is an annual outdoor exhibit of watercolors, oils, collages and paintings of other media, many portraying familiar scenes of the South Bay and Palos Verdes Peninsula. Many portraits will be displayed and most of the paintings will be for sale.

Each artist's work will be displayed under a gaily colored parasol and portfolios, prepared by each artist of sketches and unmatted drawings, will be available for browsing. The exhibiting artist will act as hostess and be prepared to answer questions.

The committee for the Parasol Show includes Mmes. H. M. Bucher, Thomas Padon and Ronald MacKinnon.

The Rembrandt Crew, a group of women from the Peninsula, includes many artists who exhibit throughout California and several members are the recipients of awards in juried shows throughout the area.

Officers of the 12-year-old organization are Mmes. Donald Chaffee, president; John Virden, vice president; Robert Norman, secretary; Kelly McBean, corresponding secretary; and Thomas Padon, treasurer.

Gifts For The Sick, Needy

Dianas Aid Scouts With

Project For Hospital Ship

Working with the youth of the area is one of the major projects of the Redondo Beach Dianas, a group of junior clubwomen affiliated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina district.

Under the direction of Mrs. Philip McBride, youth chairman, the Dianas have assisted with the Headstart program for underprivileged children; they staff the Well Baby Clinic; support the Toy Loan Center; and assist with many individual projects where children are in need; as well as sponsoring Girl Scout Troop 455.

This group of girls recently completed 24 pairs of slippers for the SS Hope hospital ship to be distributed to the needy in ports the ship visits. The idea for this project was given the Dianas by

Assisted by their sponsors, the Dianas, the girls of Scout Troop 455 have completed 24 pairs of slippers to be sent to the SS Hope Hospital Ship, for distribution to the needy in the ports the ship is servicing. Pleased with their accomplishments are, from left, Mrs. Philip MacBride, Diana youth chairman; Kathleen Hooks, scout; Mrs. Robert J. Hooks, leader; Carolyn Hooks, scout; and Mrs. George Easton, Diana publicity chairman. (Press-Herald Photo)

Dr. Margaret Ann Storkan of Redondo Beach, who gives two months of her time each year serving on the SS Hope.

The materials needed for the slippers, washcloths and shoe-strings, were provided the Girl Scouts by the Dianas. The project was undertaken under the supervision of the Girl Scout leaders, Mrs. Robert Hook and Mrs. Arthur Daniels.

In sponsoring this troop for the past three years, the Dianas have aided many of their activities. To earn their dramatic badge, the girls gave a play recently for the children of the Dianas. As a service project, during the holidays the Girl Scouts collected toys for the Toy Loan Center, which is supported by the Dianas.

Los Colinas Garden Club

Stages Flower Show-Tea

Rotary Building in the El Retiro Park, 126 Vista del Parque, was festively decorated in a Spanish theme for Los Colinas Garden Club's annual "Flores del Parque" flower show held Thursday from 2 until 4 p.m.

Hostesses for the event Mmes. Ernest Jacobs, Francis Brannon, Frank Carroll, Davis Cochran, William Doty and James Phillips. Mrs. Richard Liedrich served as general chairman for the event, which attracted a large number of South Bay flower lovers.

Refreshments carrying out the flower show theme were served from a decorated tea table.

Mrs. Frank Carroll won the Sweepstakes Award in the competition. Other winners were Mrs. Jerry Toombs, who was the recipient of the "Best of the Show" award; Mrs. Marian Hamer, who captured the "Award of Merit" and Carolyn Smith, whose entry in the junior division won for her the Junior Achievement Award.

First, second and third place awards were given in three divisions, artistic, horticulture and junior.

WSCS Installs At Luncheon Meeting

Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church installed its new officers for the coming year at a luncheon meeting at the church with Mrs. A. L. Young of the Women's Division, Southern California-Arizona Conference, conducting the ceremony.

Installed were Mmes. Eldon Fish, president; Arthur Barker, vice president; Richard Brown, secretary; and Bruce Smith, treasurer.

Chairmen assuming their new duties were Mmes. Fred Adams, Christian social concerns; Tom Boone, missionary education; Lois Balsley, spiritual growth; James Snider, membership; Richard Wolverton, publicity; Russell Paxton, local church responsibilities; Richard Brown, nominating chairman.

Appointed officers taking their posts were Mmes. Arthur Knaak, child care coordinator; Ray Peterson, wedding chairman; Maud Obarr, shut-ins; William Kline, circle coordinator; and V. M. Krondak, parliamentarian.

Circle chairmen for the new year are Mmes. Jerry Wilson, Jack Stock, Lewis Broatch, W. H. Sykes, Clarice Polleck and Fanning Oakley.

Following installation, luncheon was served by the retiring officers.

Madame Metlova To Speak At Woman's Club Luncheon Meet

Reports of the recent Marina District Convention held at the Airport Marina Hotel will be given by the delegates at the business meeting following a catered luncheon to be staged by the Torrance Woman's Club Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. at the clubhouse.

The program at 2 p.m. will feature Madame Metlova, whose topic will be "Black Bread and Caviar."

Madame Metlova was born a Russian Princess and brought to the United States as a small child. She and her family returned to Soviet Russia and she was educated in Russian schools.

Butterflies, Flowers Set Dinner Dance Scene

Garlands of spring flowers and colorful butterflies will help create the "Spring Fantasy" theme for the Del Amo Woods Homeowners Association's Dinner Dance to be held Saturday, May 4, in the Toast room at the Long Beach Elk's Club.

Beginning with a cocktail hour at 7 p.m., a buffet dinner will be served at 8. Music for dancing will be provided by The Esquires.

Serving as co-chairmen for the dance are Mrs. Robert Garrett and Mrs. Jack Halgren. Mrs. Lyman Limbocker is handling ticket sales and Mrs. Joe Sakamoto heads the decorating committee. Publicity is being supervised by Mrs. David Shucker.

Tickets may be obtained from association representatives in each unit.

Amid myriads of butterflies at a decorations workshop held this week are committee members, from left, Mrs. Joe Sakamoto, chairman, Mmes. Robert Nelson and David Schucker.

Take the Reins

Directing the activities of the Women's Society of the First Methodist Church during the coming year will be these new officers installed last Thursday. They are, from left, Mmes. Arthur Barker, vice president; Eldon Fish, president; Richard Brown, secretary; and Bruce Smith, treasurer. New chairmen and appointed officers were also endowed with their duties. (Press-Herald Photo)